

Report on Best Practice introduced by Telugu Department (2021-22 and 2022-23)

1. Title of the Practice: Inculcating moral values in students

2. Objectives of the Practice:

The programme relating to the best practice was designed with the objectives of instilling moral values and humanitarian values in the students and making them learn sataka poems and stories which teach them regarding the right and ethical ways to conduct oneself in the world so as to strive for a better society.

3. The Context:

All the ills plaguing the society now are as a consequence of deterioration in the adherence to value system by the people in the society. It was considered that it is essential to revive the value system in the minds of the youngsters, who represent the future of our society.

4. The Practice:

Commencing from November, 2021, all the students were made aware of and taught regarding famous Sataka poems in Telugu language. In the assembly conducted every day, one Sataka poem is recited by a student along with the explanation of its meaning, so as to facilitate development of moral and human values in the students. With a view to teach these values to the students of other schools also, permission was obtained from the Head Master of the adjacent Sri Nune Ranganayakulu & Panakalu Municipal High School and Sataka poems were taught and moral stories were read out to the 6th class and seventh class students of the school on 01.04.2022 by the students of our college. This is proposed to be continued on every Friday on a regular basis. The Head master and Telugu teachers of the school had a lot of praise for our students for this programme and requested that the same may be continued in the next academic year also.

5. Evidence of Success:

The programme generated lot of interest in the students to acquire the knowledge of the Satakas and benefit from the valuable inputs they provide for moulding their personality for the betterment of the society. The students have shown keen interest in sharing the said knowledge with the students of the adjoining school.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required:

7. Notes (Optional)

EXTENSION ACTIVITY
ON MORAL VALUES
01.04.2022
CONDUCTED BY
TELUGU DEPARTMENT

Aims & Objectives

This programme was designed with the objectives of instilling moral values and humanitarian values in the students and making them learn sataka poems and stories which teach them regarding the right and ethical ways to conduct oneself in the world so as to strive for a better society.

Report

In the last four months, all the students were taught regarding sataka poems. In the assembly conducted every day, one sataka poem is recited by a student along with the explanation of its meaning so as to develop moral and human values in the students. With a view to teach these values to the students of other schools also, permission was obtained from the Head Master of the adjacent Sri Nune Ranganayakulu & Panakalu Municipal High School and sataka poems were taught and moral stories were read out to the 6th class and seventh class students of the school on 01.04.2022 by the students of our college. This is proposed to be continued on every Friday from the month of April 2022. The Head master and telugu teachers of the school had a lot of praise for our students for this programme and requested that the same may be continued in the next academic year also. The students who participated in teaching the sataka poems are J. Keerthi, I B.Sc (B.H.C), Ch. Veneela, I B.Sc (B.H.C), G. Padmini, I B.Sc (B.Z.C), A. Geetanjali, I B.Com (Gen), P. Suvarnalatha, I B.Sc (M.P.C), S. Durga Bhavani, I B.Sc (M.P.C), P. Reshna, I B.Sc (B.Z.C) and G. Sada, II B.Sc (B.H.C). 42 students attended the programme.

Outcome

The students of the college who participated in the programme developed organizing skills, teaching skills and communication skills. The students of the school were able to learn moral values

EXTENSION ACTIVITY
On MORAL VALUES
16.09.2022
Conducted by
TELUGU DEPARTMENT

Aims & Objectives:

This extension activity has been designed with the objectives of instilling moral values and humanitarian values in the students by making them learn sataka poems and stories which teach them regarding the right and ethical ways to conduct oneself in the world so as to strive for a better society and in turn teach the same to the younger students in various schools.

Report:

This activity is being conducted since last 10 months. During this period, the students have been made aware of and taught regarding famous Sataka poems in Telugu language. In the assembly conducted every day, one Sataka poem is recited by a student along with the explanation of its meaning, so as to facilitate development of moral and human values in the students. With a view to teach these values to the students of other schools also, permission was obtained from the Head Master of the adjacent Sri Nune Ranganayakulu & Panakalu Muncipal High School and Sataka poems were taught and moral stories were read out to the 6th class and seventh class students of the school on 01.04.2022 and 16.09.2022 by the students of our college. This is proposed to be continued on every Friday on a regular basis. The Head master and Telugu teachers of the school had a lot of praise for our students for this programme and requested that the same may be continued in the next academic year also. Students J. Keerthi, I B.Sc (B.H.C), CH. Vineela, I B.Sc (B.H.C), G.Padmini, I B.Sc (B.Z.C) and A. Geetanjali, I B.Com (Gen) participated actively in this programme.

Outcome:

This extension activity helped the students to develop and improve their organizing skills, teaching skills and communication skills. The school students were able to imbibe values and ethics on account of this programme.

GPS Map Camera

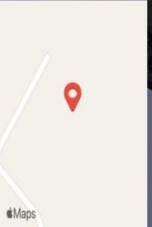

Chirala, AP, India
Paparajuthota, Chirala, 523155,
Lat 15.826864, Long 80.349918
09/16/2022 03:48 PM

Maps

GPS Map Camera

Chirala, AP, India
Paparajuthota, Chirala, 523155,
Lat 15.826874, Long 80.349906
09/16/2022 03:50 PM

Maps